Hi! My name is Bobby! I am Jewish!

The Jewish religion is called Judaism and is over 4,000 years old! The first Jew was a great man named Abraham.

Jews read the Jewish Bible, called the Tanakh, and believe in one God. We worship God by going to a synagogue on Saturdays. Jewish people celebrate many holidays and festivals, including Passover and Hanukkah. Judaism is one of the world's oldest religions, and I am proud to be Jewish! I hope that you have enjoyed learning about my religion!

Hi! My name is Roberto! I am Christian!

Christians are followers of Jesus Christ. To us, Jesus is the Son of God and lived about 2,000 years ago in Israel.

Christians read the Christian Bible and believe in one God. We worship God by going to church on Sundays. Christians celebrate many holidays and festivals, including Easter and Christmas. Christianity is the world's largest religion, and I am proud to be a Christian! I hope that you have enjoyed learning about my religion!

Hi! My name is Elsa! I am Muslim!

The religion of Muslims is called Islam. A great prophet named Muhammad started Islam about 1,400 years ago.

Muslims read the Qur'an and believe in one God. We worship God by praying five times a day and going to a mosque on Fridays. Muslims celebrate many holidays and festivals, including the Day of Hijra and Ramadan. Islam is one of the world's fastest growing religions, and I am proud to be a Muslim! I hope that you have enjoyed learning about my religion!

Hi! My name is Mina! I am Hindu!

Hinduism is a very old religion that began over 5,000 years ago in India. No one is sure who started the Hindu religion.

Hindus read the Vedas and believe in many gods and goddesses, with all of them representing different expressions of Brahman, the one true God. We worship at temples and we also worship at home. Hindus celebrate many holidays and festivals, including Holi and Diwali. Hinduism is a very old and beautiful religion, and I am proud to be a Hindu! I hope that you have enjoyed learning about my religion!

Hi! My name is Gomin! I am Buddhist!

Buddhism began about 2,500 years ago in India. Buddhists are followers of Buddha.

Buddhists follow the Four Noble Truths and the Eightfold Path. We worship at shrines and temples. Buddhists celebrate many holidays and festivals, including Vesak and Ulambana. Buddhism is a very noble religion, and I am proud to be a Buddhist! I hope that you have enjoyed learning about my religion!

Hi! My name is Jane! I am Wiccan!

Wicca is a religion that is based on old beliefs and customs that respect Earth and other people.

Wiccans follow the Wiccan Rede and believe in many gods and goddesses. We worship in groups called covens or in temples. Wiccans celebrate many holidays and festivals, including Beltane and Yule. Wicca is a religion that respects nature, and I am proud to be a Wiccan! I hope that you have enjoyed learning about my religion!

As you can see, the world has many wonderful religions! Won't you share your religion with us?
